

TABERNACLE OF DAVID MINISTRIES, INTERNATIONAL NEWS

September Mission Trip to Vancouver

In early September, I made a weeklong mission trip to Vancouver, Canada. For the first four days, I ministered at Heavenly Bridge Church's youth camp in Victoria Island. Those young people at first were not able to focus on my messages. Breakthrough finally came in the second evening, when I laid hands on them and led over a dozen to the Lord. They rested in the Spirit on the floor for a long time. After preaching at the last meeting, many answered the alter call to dedicate their lives to God. Many counselors also wept and repented before God. Later, seven of them were baptized at the nearby beach. Many lives were changed after they encountered God in the camp. On Saturday night, I preached at Bread of Life Church in Richmond, where I also prayed to the sick. I preached with strong anointing at the Sunday service in the next morning, and then gave an alter call for people to receive prayer. I preached at another Sunday service of Christian Worship Center in the afternoon and also prayed for many people. On Monday night, I ministered at the Full Gospel Businessmen's prayer meeting to encourage them and pray for them.

Later I made another mission trip to Vancouver, Canada near the end of September. I was the main speaker for Amazing Grace Christian Fellowship's 12th Anniversary Celebration in Whistler. The theme was "Holy Spirit and Mission." Most of the congregation was new Chinese immigrants. The first evening meeting was delayed because many people can't find the meeting hall. After preaching, many gathered in the front, weeping on their knees in prayers. The next morning, many came forward for the alter call to join the mission for China. After preaching in the evening, I laid hands on the coworkers to receive the anointing. On Sunday morning, at their marriage re-dedication ceremony I blessed those couples. After speaking briefly at the Sunday service, I traveled back to Vancouver and ministered to the young people at their dinner banquet. The next evening, we held a Moon Festival gospel meeting at Trinity University in Langley. We met at the auditorium with many Chinese students. After worship, I preached a gospel message and led over a dozen young people to the Lord. I also prayed for some of them. In the last evening, I preached at West Point Baptist Church in West Vancouver. Those who came to the meeting were also new immigrants from China. During the ministry time, several were moved to tears and wept deeply.

October Mission to Northern China

In October, our coworker took a 3-week mission trip to Shanxi, Henan, Shanxi and Liaoning, China, held meetings at 26 places, and ministered to near 5,000 people. The first two weeks were in Henan. We had to travel everyday in order to minister at many places in this big province and almost every meeting was packed with many people. We held meetings every morning and every afternoon at each place. We first led people in repentance and then to receive the Holy Spirit, and finally we finished up with ministry of healing. Then we traveled in the evening to the next place for some rest. One major issue the China house churches in the countryside have to face in the recent years is that most young people are moving to the cities, leaving the elderly people behind, whose need are often neglected.

I first arrived at a city in Shanxi by plane. After preaching at a house meeting in the evening, many responded in tears. The next day, we held a meeting at a suburban factory. Coworkers from nearby areas gathered and overflowed to the courtyard. I led them to raise their hands in worshipping God with a new song. During the prayer after preaching, people fell down under power of God. We switched to the big hall in the afternoon and prayed for all the people. We then went to a village in Henan that evening. In the coworker meeting the next day, more than 30 from Tianshui, Gansu came. As people wept in response to the preaching, I got off the platform and laid hands on them. In the afternoon, I prayed for them in turns to receive the anointing. After arriving at another city that evening, I prayed for the sick gathered at a house church.

We held a tent meeting at a courtyard in a suburban area the next morning. Many people wept strongly in response to the preaching. When I laying of hands on them, they all fell down in weeping and later we all kneeled down in worshipping God. After preaching in the afternoon, I led them to praise God with dancing. Our next meeting was at a cave in the countryside and once again people responded to the preaching in tears. As I laid hands on them, they fell down all over the place. In the afternoon, the Spirit of joy came and they were filled with holy laughter. I stood on a table and led them to praise God in dancing. We had our evening meeting at another city with coworkers gathered inside a bomb shelter. I shared a message and prayed for them in groups. Because of their hunger for God, the Holy Spirit moved strongly. We later rushed to another city. The next morning, we met inside an apartment, which was small but packed with people. They wept in repentance after the preaching. We could only pray for one row of people at a time and it took a long time. After lunch, we went to a hospital to pray for two patients. The afternoon meeting was held at another apartment. We prayed for many elderly people in turns.

We then traveled to a remote village and met with coworkers the next morning. After the preaching, many wept when receiving the prayer. We had an afternoon meeting in the city. After sharing a short message, I prayed for many sick in groups. We rushed to another village afterwards. The next morning, the meeting place was packed. There were many young people in weeping strongly when receiving prayer. In the late afternoon, after praying for all the coworkers from nearby areas, we then rushed to the next city.
