February Mission Trip to Southern China

In the end of February, I made a two-week mission trip to Jiangxi, Hunan, and Guangdong provinces in southern China, held meetings in 15 places, and ministered to more than 1,800 people. As usual, we ministered during the day and traveled at night on a daily basis. But sometimes we had to hold evening meetings at several large cities. The southern cities are more developed so that I could stay at hotels and be transported by private cars. The spring weather was very unpredictable during this trip, as it cooled down with rain. I caught a cold one night because the heater went out, but it did not impact my ministry.

I first arrived at a city in Jiangxi and then took a bus to another city. I preached to the anticipating crowd at one local church and then prayed for them. Several fell down without touching and many rested quietly in the Spirit. Next morning, we met at another church, packed with people from nearby areas. After preaching, they were on their knees weeping in response. When I laid hands on them, they fell down on the floor. Later I prayed for the sick, and many were cancer patients. A girl who came in a stretcher was able to walk. After preaching in the afternoon, many were filled with great joy. As I went to another city, a local coworker began to accompany me. In the next morning, we met at a small house church in the city. I preached and then prayed for people in two groups. The Holy Spirit moved mightily and they fell down in weeping for a long time. Many more people came in the afternoon and packed the two small rooms. After preaching, I first prayed for the college students and then the rest. They were filled with great joy and fell down in laughter. Then we took a bus to the next city. Next morning, we met at a suburb area. It was a Sunday and the large house was packed with people. After preaching, they were on their knees, weeping for repentance. As I began to lay hands on them, all the sudden they all fell down in weeping. After preaching in the afternoon, they all rushed forward to receive the ministry of healings. Several elderly men were able to walk without crutches and wheelchairs. At the end, I prayed for their coworkers. We took a bus to another city and then went to a village. Next morning, many arrived from nearby areas. I preached on the issue of some house church leaders joining the Three-Self government church. When I started praying for them, there was not much response. The breakthrough came later and several were able to walk without crutches. Many watched with shouts of praise. After preaching in the afternoon, the Spirit of joy descended and many were in holy laughter. I then laid hands on everyone and many were elderly people. I also blessed many children. Lastly, I anointed the coworkers as they fell down quietly and I prophesied over them. An arranged ride was ready for me afterward to go to a city in Hunan.

It's been almost ten year since last time I ministered there. I finally got in touch with some coworkers. After preaching in the next evening, I prayed for people in two groups and many were weeping and shouting. I also prayed for the healing. In the next morning, they responded to the preaching in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with the Holy Spirit in great laughter, as the Holy Spirit moved mightily. Afterward I had a fellowship with a church leader at a nearby church. In the evening, I prayed for the youth students and new believers after preaching. Then we went to the next city. In the next morning, we met at the newly expanded church facility. After preaching, I prayed for people as many wept strongly and fell down on the floor. After preaching in the afternoon, I first prayed for the out-of-town coworkers and then for the local believers. Some fell down in holy laughter and some were on fire of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit continued to move among them. After praying for several needy individuals, we went to the next city. Next morning, we met at a suburb area. After preaching, I prayed for them and they fell down in weeping. A pastor from Three-Self church came to observe the meeting. We decided to leave due to uncertainty and traveled to a city in the remote mountainside. We met the next morning in the city and not many showed up in the beginning. After preaching, I first laid hands on the people as they fell down in weeping, then I prayed for healings. In the afternoon, they were filled with joy in holy laughter. After the meeting, we visited a girl with leukemia at a hospital and prayed for her before we departed for a remote city. In the next morning, more than a dozen house churches from nearby areas gathered for a joint Sunday service. Several hundreds packed the meeting hall. After preaching, I prayed for all of them in three groups at the upstairs and some were weeping. I then prayed for healings and several elder men were able to walk without crutches. Many watched with shouts of praise. After preaching in the afternoon, the Spirit of joy descended and many seated in the front began to laugh. Then I laid hands on them row by row with the joy anointing. They all fell down in holy laughter all over the place. After the meeting, we returned to a major city.

On the next day, I took a flight to a large city. Coworkers then drove me to a factory where a bible training camp was hosted. They arranged me to minister at the special evening meeting. After preaching, I prayed for them to receive the anointing and they fell down all over the place. Later I ministered in healing, many gave testimonies. A sister's tumor disappeared immediately and she cried aloud in thanksgiving to God. The next evening, we met inside a house unit in an apartment with mainly the young coworkers. Due to the location we had to keep the voices down and use caution. After preaching, I prayed for them in two groups and several were touched in weeping. In the next morning, I had a fellowship with a church leader before departing.

Special Ministry Report:

Recently we saw great changes in China. Worldly influences bring great impact to the church. The house churches in the past preached mainly on the way of the cross and endured persecution. They were filled with the Holy Spirit and expanded gospel mission with a vision. The city churches these days are easily influenced by the world to compromise on truth and many pursue prosperity, fame and success in this world. They still need your prayers!
