February Mission Trip to Eastern China

In early February, I made a three-week mission trip to Jiangsu, Anhui, and Shandong provinces in China. We held meetings at 21 places and ministered to over 5,500 people. As usual, I traveled daily with one morning and one afternoon meeting each day. The distances between each place were not too far therefore it was easy to arrange transportation by local churches. I ministered specially to the Three-Self Churches in Jiangsu. Their believers were very hungry for the Holy Spirit. I focused on laying of hands on the sick for healing miracles. In Shandong, I ministered to mostly the house churches, where I emphasized on repentance and the filling of the Holy Spirit.

After arriving at a large city, I visited an older sister the next morning. In the afternoon, I ministered at one old sister's home where a crippled sister was able to walk. The next day, I went to a city in Jiangsu to minister at a house church. After preaching, I laid hands on many to be filled with Holy Spirit and speak in tongues. Some with cancers received healings. Several crippled were able to walk. In the evening, we met at a church for coworkers training. After preaching, I anointed them with joy. In the next morning's Sunday service, most of the people were from Anhui. After preaching, I prayed for them on the platform and they fell in weeping strongly. I then laid hands on the children and they fell down quietly. In the afternoon, I prayed for the sick and many crippled were able to walk without crutches. I then went to the next city and we met at the new church building the next morning with people from various places. After preaching, I first prayed for those who were moved in tears, and people rushed forward to receive prayers. In the afternoon, the worship team performed dances. After preaching, I prayed for sick and many received healings. I also anointed towels and prayed for coworkers to be filled with the Holy Spirit. I then went to a distant town in the evening.

The next morning, the meeting hall was packed and the youth band led the worship. After preaching, the platform was crowded with those waiting for prayers. Many fell in weeping as the presence of God manifested. Lastly I laid hands on the worship team. They wept strongly and were burning with fire of the Holy Spirit. When I ministered in healing in the afternoon, a man with crutches was able to walk and people shouted praises to God. The next day a different group of people came. After preaching, they also rushed to the platform to receive prayers. Lastly I laid hands on coworkers to be filled with the Holy Spirit. In the afternoon, I led many to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit. They began to speak in tongues and were filled with great joy. I then went to a nearby village and we met at the church the next morning. After preaching, I prayed for people on the platform and they all fell down quietly. More people came in the afternoon for ministry of healings. Many in crutches were able to walk, the deaf could hear, and the wheelchair-bound could walk. In the evening, I went to a city and ministered to their church choir. After preaching, I prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit. They all begin to speak in tongues and were filled with joy. The main coworkers embraced each other in tears of reconciliation, and I was greatly moved.

In the next morning, I went to a nearby city in Anhui. After preaching, I prayed for coworkers and they all fell down in tears. Some young sisters could not stop weeping. In the afternoon, they were filled with great joy. In the next morning, I went to a church at a far village in Jiangsu. People came up to the platform to receive prayers. In the afternoon, more came from nearby villages. After preaching, I ministered in healings. People rushed forward and it was very chaotic. I then prayed for all the ministers and they were filled with joy. In the next morning Sunday service at a nearby town, over 1,500 people came from nearby cities. After preaching, I laid hands on all the people on the platform. In the afternoon, I ministered in healings, prayed for coworkers, and anointed towels. A demon-possessed man received deliverance.

After arriving at a city in Shandong at night, I ministered at a coworker meeting the next morning. They responded to my preaching in tears and they were in great laughter in the afternoon. I then went to the next city and ministered at a coworker meeting the next morning. I prayed for them and they all fell down in tears. In the afternoon, many were touched by the joy of the Lord in great laughter. I went to the next city and ministered at a new church building the next morning. After preaching, I prayed for the people on the platform in groups. In the afternoon, I prayed for sick first, then for the anointing of joy. I then went to the next city. We met at the east zone in the next morning and the west zone in the afternoon with a packed crowd. After preaching, I ministered in healing and prayed for the anointing of joy. The coworkers were greatly filled with the Holy Spirit. In the next morning, I went to a house church in a nearby village. After preaching, I prayed for people and many fell down in tears. In the afternoon, I ministered in healings and anointing of joy. The young coworkers were on fire of the Holy Spirit. I then went to a nearby city for their coworkers meeting in the evening. After preaching, I prayed for them and some received deliverance from demons.

In the next morning, I took the bus to another city for a joint Sunday service for house churches in villages. After preaching, I prayed for them and they fell for a long time. In the afternoon, I anoint them with joy and they were in holy laughter. I anointed the coworkers and they were in weeping. Next day, I ministered at a house meeting in another city. Because the place was very small, people were ministered in groups. I prayed for them and they fell down in tears and later they were filled with joy. I took a flight back to a major city that evening. The next afternoon, I spoke to a young coworker team in a restaurant and then prayed for them.
