March Ministry to Southern California

In March, I travelled to southern California for ministry about one week. After arriving in San Diego, we met at Brother Wu's home next evening with coworkers. I arrived in Los Angeles that evening, got my rental car and stayed at the host family. Next evening, I ministered at a house meeting of Christ Worship Center with a packed crowd. As we practiced the worship songs, the presence of God manifested with fullness of His love. I preached on repentance and prayed for the people. Most of them fell down quietly. Some were weeping and then filled with joy. On next night, I ministered at New Hope International Church's prayer meeting. Many showed up and majority was new believers from China. ## April mission trip to Southwest China

In April, I made a two-week mission trip to Hubei and Sichuan in China. We met in 11 places and ministered to over 1,100 people. Five of them accepted Jesus and were baptized. Although we made meeting arrangements only after I arrived, everything went smoothly without any problem. Even when we had to make changes to the original plan, we still saw God's leading. I was received well by the host family at each place.

I first arrived at a city in Hubei. Two sisters picked me up at the airport and provided for my transportation. The next day, we went to a house church in a remote town. Not many came and most were teachers. When I prayed for them after preaching the Bible, many were in weeping and then filled with the Holy Spirit. In the evening, I specially prayed for the teenagers. They fell down in weeping and made loud noises. Lastly, I anointed the coworkers with joy. On Sunday morning, we went to another city where I ministered 18 years ago and publicly led over 200 people to the Lord. Now the house church has grown more than 10 times with thousands believers. I was very grateful that all the hard work made years ago still have huge impact until today. I preached at the coworker meeting in the afternoon and prayed for them in groups. They fell all over the place and there was great weeping. I preached again and then prayed for healing. Several were able to walk without crutches. Lastly, I anointed coworkers and they were filled with joy. In the evening, we had a meeting for believers. After preaching, we interceded for the unsaved family members and many wept aloud. We went to spend the night in a town of another city. The next morning, the church was packed with people. After preaching, I prayed for them as they wept and then prayed for healing with many fell quietly. In the afternoon, I anointed them with joy and they fell in laughter. As we arrived at another city, some elderly sisters treated us with a delicious dinner. The next morning, we met in a nearby village. As I began laying hands on people after preaching, they fell down all together in tears. After preaching in the afternoon, I led them in dancing to praise God. I then prayed for healing and they fell all over the place. A blind and lame sister was able to walk and see. Lastly, they were anointed with joy and fell together in laughter. After I came back to the host family, many came for healing. I laid hands on them as well as on their towels and they fell quietly. We then went back to another city. The next morning, we met inside a residential building. Many coworkers came from nearby areas. After preaching, I laid hands on them and many fell down in tears. In the afternoon, they were anointed with joy in holy laughter. Lastly, I had fellowship with them to know the current situation.

After arriving at a city in Sichuan, I spent the night at the host family. The next evening, we met at a small house church with several new believers. After preaching, I prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit and healing. The next morning, we met with city coworkers at a meeting facility. I prayed for them after preaching and many fell in tears. In the afternoon, they were filled with joy and many were speaking in tongues for the first time. The next morning, we met at house church of the prayer tower in the city. I prayed for personal needs and healings after preaching, and many fell down quietly. I then anointed coworkers with joy and water-baptized five new believers. In the afternoon, I took the bus to the next city and spent the night at the host family. Their farmhouse just got remodeled and it was very comfortable to stay outside the city. The next morning, I preached at Sunday service of a house church in the city. I prayed for everyone and they fell all over the place. In the afternoon, I preached and anointed them with great joy. The next day, I preached at a house church with mostly elderly people. After preaching, I laid hands on people for healing as they fell down quietly. A sister was able to get up from wheelchair and walk. Lastly, I anointed the coworkers with joy.

May Ministry in Atlanta, Georgia

In May, I went to Atlanta, Georgia to minister at different churches. In the Friday evening, I preached at Christ Banner Church's special meeting for students. Many were new believers from China. I first taught a song and then preached the Bible. Later when I prayed for them, they did not have much response to the Holy Spirit but only their coworkers fell down in tears. I was impressed by their new church building, which they bought with a very cheap price. On Sunday morning, I preached at the Bread of Life Church's Sunday Service and gave an alter call. Many came forth to dedicate themselves to serve God. I laid hands on them and many fell down in tears. The Holy Spirit moved strongly among them and it lasted for a long time.
