

TABERNACLE OF DAVID MINISTRIES, INTERNATIONAL NEWS

June Mission to Malaysia & Taiwan

In June, I made a mission trip to Malaysia and Taiwan for two weeks. We held meetings at 5 places and minister to more than 1600 people. In Malaysia, the ministry was mainly at two large Assembly of God churches. In Taiwan, I was invited by AOG president Pastor Yan to minister at the newly founded Nations Worship Prayer Center. This is, after nearly a decade, the first time to return to Taiwan for ministry. Currently we have no dedicated coworker in Taiwan in recent years.

After arriving Kuala Lumpur in Malaysia, coworkers from Seremban picked me up and drove me directly to Calvary Life Church in Malacca. At night meeting, my preaching was translated into English but not very effective. Next night at their branch church in the nearby town of TangKak, people paid more attention to my preaching. Later almost everyone received prayers and fell down quietly. Next morning, I went back to Kuala Lumpur and stayed at Elder Wang's home. At noon, Pastor Huang invited me to a wedding banquet. That night at Glad Tidings Church in Petaling Jaya, I sang a song before the meeting and felt the presence of God. Later I preached about the Holy Spirit and gave an altar call. Many came forth on their knees praying in repentance. I laid hands on them and they fell down quietly. Some did not want to leave until the end.

There were two morning services on Sunday, and the first was already filled with people. During worship, I was filled with the Holy Spirit and fell down in weeping. Later Pastor Huang translated my preaching into Cantonese. I first laid hands on those who wanted to receive the Holy Spirit and they began to speak in tongues. I then prayed for the rest and they fell down quietly. No translation was required for the second service but I still ministered in prayers until the afternoon. Next evening, we borrowed a small classroom for the reunion meeting of young adult disciples. As we worshiped, we felt the presence of God. We shared our current situation. I then shared a short message, and lastly prayed for them. Some were weeping, and then were holy laughing. I also laid hands to bless their children.

After a day of rest, I took a flight to Taiwan and my old coworkers came to pick me up. We went to Taoyuan for a meal and I stayed at their home in the church building. I spent first two days for some personal business. On Saturday morning, I ministered at Nations Worship Center for a training meeting for the intercessors. People rushed forth in response to the altar call after preaching. They prayed for the revival in Taiwan and many were in weeping. Later I laid hands on them and they all fell down quietly. Next afternoon on Sunday, it was a special healing meeting with many came from various churches. The indigenous people led passionate praise and worship with many dancing before the Lord. After preaching, I invited people coming forward to seek the Holy Spirit and spoke in tongues. I then laid hands on the youth and prayed for healings of the sick. Lastly, I anointed the rest and the presence of God manifested. Many fell down quietly and some were weeping.

July Mission to Northeast China

Early July, I made a mission trip to Heilongjiang, Jilin and Liaoning provinces in northeast China for two weeks. We held revival meetings in 13 places, ministered to over 2,000 people. In this trip, because of the new high-speed railroad, I enjoyed the great convenience, traveling from major cities to nearby areas.

My flight arrived at a city in Heilongjiang near midnight. The next morning we held the meeting at a house church. After preaching, I gave an altar call and people rushed to the front on their knees crying out for repentance. Later I taught a new song and anointed coworkers. After preaching in the afternoon, I prayed for the sick and deliverance. Afterward, I took the train to another city. The next morning, we held coworkers meeting in the suburbs. After my preaching, they were touched in tears. I laid hands on them and they fell in weeping strongly. In the afternoon, they were filled with joy. When I prayed for the sick, a blind girl was able to see. I then went to another city. The next morning, we held coworkers meeting in the countryside. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell down in weeping. In the afternoon, I anointed them with joy in groups. I took a bus to return to a city, and then went to a nearby village. The next morning, we met at the new house church building. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell in weeping. In the afternoon I anointed them with joy.

I took the high-speed train next day to a city in Liaoning, and stayed at a hotel. The next afternoon, we went to another city for coworkers meeting. I laid hands on them after preaching and many fell in weeping. After preaching in the evening, I prayed for the sick. The next morning we went to the coworkers meeting in a nearby village. After preaching, I prayed for them and many were weeping. When waiting for the Holy Spirit in the afternoon, they fell from front to back. I then anointed them with joy in groups. The next morning, we held a gospel meeting inside the hotel. I preached and led nearly 30 people to Christ. Later I laid hands on them and they fell down quietly. I then prayed for the rest and the presence of God manifested. In the afternoon, we met at house church. After preaching, I laid hands on all who responded to altar call and they fell down in weeping. The next morning, we had a large meeting in the nearby countryside. The worship teams from various churches first performed dancing. I then preached and prayed for everyone on the platform. In the afternoon, I laid hands on them for healing. Lastly, some were filled with great joy.

The next morning, I took a high-speed train to a city in Jilin. We met in a house church and it was packed. After preaching, I laid hands on the people and they fell in weeping. Spirit of joy came in the afternoon and they were filled with holy laughter. Lastly I laid hands on young students and they were crying loudly on fire of the Holy Spirit. The next evening, we had a meeting with people from different churches. After preaching, I laid hands on them in groups and they fell down quietly. The next morning, I went to a coworkers meeting of a house church. After preaching, I laid hands on them and they fell down quietly. In the afternoon, they were filled with great joy in laughing uncontrollably.
